Market Observations by Segment

HHBC (Home Health & Community-Based Care): No let-up in strong M&A activity in HHBC since 2013. We are seeing compelling deals across the entire spectrum of HHBC, including skilled home health (note deals by Amedisys, LHC Group, etc.), unskilled home care (e.g., Wellspring's Help at Home), hospice (e.g., Compassus' deals), and pediatric home health (with Epic as lead buyer). In a new twist, we also saw the bellwether transaction of a sizable adult day health provider: Senior Care / Active Day's (Lincoln as advisor) sale to Audax.

HHBC (International): We will soon begin to publish reports on global HHBC. We observe a tremendous amount of investment / M&A activity in many countries, with deal volume seemingly on a steady rise.

PHAR: More "calmness" in this segment. Certainly fewer home IV deals given prior strong consolidation activity. One transaction stood out: the sale of AxelaCare to OptumRx.

PHAR (International): We will soon begin to report on global deal activity in PHAR. Both specialty pharmacy and IV deals appear to be on the rise in many countries (notably in Europe). Lincoln served as the advisor on a successful platform home IV sale in France in 2015.

LTC and OTHER (Rehab & Dialysis): While there was markedly reduced deal flow in the elder facilities space in the latter part of 2015, rehab service transactions (particularly outpatient and contract PT) saw good activity. Notable deals include the Upstream Spectrum Professional Rehab and transactions.
