

Officer Bio | Richard Hall

Richard Hall | Managing Director

Role at Lincoln International:

Richard leads or assists in client teams in Lincoln International's Pensions Advisory group. He provides analysis and advice to both companies and trustees on employer covenant-related matters. He has experience of a wide range of industries and is also actively engaged in the marketing of Pensions Advisory's services.

Advisory Experience:

As a qualified actuary, Richard has over 19 years of advisory experience in the pensions industry, including 8 years of providing employer covenant and monitoring services for pension trustees. He has provided advice on all aspects of the employer covenant including covenant assessment, monitoring, corporate transactions and financial restructurings.

Industry Experience:

Richard has advised in relation to employers from a wide range of industries, including alcoholic drinks, automotive, consumer electronics, energy, financial, food, ingredients, packaging, and utilities.

Past Affiliations:

Richard joined Lincoln International in January 2010 from Gazelle Corporate Finance where he was a Director in its Pensions Advisory division. Prior to this he headed the employer covenant business at Standard & Poor's which assessed the financial strength of pension scheme sponsors. Prior to joining Standard & Poor's, Richard worked as a consulting actuary for leading consultancies including Watson Wyatt (now Towers Watson) and Mercer, providing actuarial advice to companies and trustees.

Academic Credentials:

Richard is a Fellow of the Institute of Actuaries. He has an LLB (Hons) Law Degree from the University of Kent.

