

Officer Bio | Franklin Harris

Franklin Harris | Managing Director

Role at Lincoln International:

Franklin co-heads Lincoln International's Financial Sponsors Group. Based in New York, he is responsible for establishing and strengthening the firm's relationships with financial sponsors and overseeing the execution of selected M&A, financing, and other advisory transactions.

Advisory Experience:

Franklin has over 15 years of experience in investment banking and has completed a wide range of mergers and acquisitions, financings, and other advisory assignments. His clients have included financial sponsors, owner-entrepreneurs, and larger public and private corporations. Franklin has worked with clients in all phases of their life cycle, including high growth, stable or maturing and distressed situations. Most recently, Franklin has focused his attention on assisting financial sponsors in building their businesses, generally, and in finding, financing and monetizing their investments, specifically.

Industry Experience:

Franklin has provided advisory services to clients within a number of sectors, including healthcare, industrial, consumer/retail, technology, and power, among others.

Past Affiliations:

Prior to joining Lincoln International, Franklin was a Managing Director and Head of the Financial Sponsors Group at Miller Buckfire & Co., a New York investment bank. Before his four years at Miller Buckfire, Franklin was a Senior Vice President with Lehman Brothers in their Mergers and Acquisitions Group for three years. He also spent seven years at Donaldson, Lufkin & Jenrette in the firms' Health Care and Mergers and Acquisitions Groups.

Academic Credentials:

Franklin holds an MBA from Harvard Business School and Bachelor of Science degrees in Applied Biology and Management from the Georgia Institute of Technology, where he graduated with highest honors.

