

Lincoln International LLC

Investment Banking Analyst – Mergers & Acquisitions

Company Description:

Lincoln International is a premier, mid-market investment bank specializing in merger and acquisition advisory, private capital raising, restructuring and valuation advisory services. Founded in 1996, Lincoln International is one of the fastest growing investment banks in the country. Our clients include Fortune 1000 companies seeking to divest business units or attempting to acquire public or private companies, leading private equity firms looking to divest or acquire portfolio companies and privately-held companies needing representation in the sale or acquisition of businesses. With twelve offices in Amsterdam, Chicago, Frankfurt, London, Los Angeles, Madrid, Moscow, Mumbai, New York, Paris, Tokyo and Vienna, and strategic partnerships with leading institutions in China and Korea, Lincoln International has strong local knowledge and contacts in the key global economies. The organization provides clients with senior-level attention, in-depth industry expertise and integrated resources. The firm focuses on a variety of industries, including aerospace and defense, automotive and truck, building and infrastructure, business services, consumer and food, electronics, healthcare and industrials, among others. More information about Lincoln International can be obtained at www.lincolninternational.com.

Duties & Responsibilities:

The Analyst position at Lincoln International provides an excellent opportunity to work in a demanding, yet supportive, team-oriented environment. In addition to mastering the financial analysis and research skills typical for the position, an Analyst at Lincoln International learns about and becomes involved in a transaction from start to finish. The Analyst serves as the analytical anchor for his/her deal team and is responsible for preparing, completing and ensuring the accuracy of all financial modeling and analysis. The Analyst is expected to interpret the results of his/her financial analysis, pose questions and draw conclusions. In addition, the Analyst plays a critical role in the preparation of client presentations and is responsible for:

- Preparing marketing materials for sell-side and buy-side advisory assignments
- Identifying potential acquirers
- Conducting industry and company-specific research
- Ensuring the accuracy and quality of all presentation materials
- Supporting the due diligence process
- Interacting with clients on a regular basis
- Attending client meetings
- Supporting the marketing activities of the firm as they relate to an industry or engagement

The firm offers a unique, flexible culture that rewards initiative and allows an Analyst to develop as quickly as he/she is capable. The following factors differentiate the Analyst program at Lincoln International:

- Responsibilities are limited only by ability rather than by a formal job description
- High levels of exposure to senior professionals within the firm
- Unparalleled client interaction
- Opportunity to remain with Lincoln International and be promoted to Associate and beyond
- Opportunity to contribute to Lincoln International's global growth and work overseas

Qualifications:

The Analyst position at Lincoln International is extremely challenging, offers an excellent learning experience and provides a solid foundation upon which an individual can build a future business career. Interested candidates should meet the following requirements:

- Successful Analysts are assertive and self-motivated, can manage multiple tasks and deadlines in a fast-paced environment and are detail oriented
- Strong writing, verbal communication and computer skills (Excel, PowerPoint, Word)
- Prior internship(s) in investment banking or accounting is preferred, but not required
- Degree in finance and/or accounting, or have successfully completed significant coursework in these or related areas
- Minimum GPA of 3.5 is required